Re: Soter Technologies, LLC v. IP Video Corporation, et al.,
Civ. No. 20-CV-05007(LJL) (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Liman:

We represent Plaintiff Soter Technologies, LLC (“Plaintiff”) in the above-captioned matter. We write pursuant to Your Honor’s Individual Rules 1(B) and (C) to respectfully request an adjournment of the preliminary injunction hearing currently scheduled for October 7, 2020.

Based on Defendants’ interrogatory responses and Defendants’ document production to date, Plaintiff agrees to withdraw its request to convert TRO Restraint #2 to a preliminary injunction. Specifically, from discovery to date, it appears that Defendants’ representation regarding compatibility was limited to a single matter and there have not been such representations in other instances. Consequently, Plaintiff concludes that at this time there is not an imminent threat that similar representations will be made to other potential customers.

Based on such withdrawal, the parties have agreed to cancel expedited discovery depositions, briefing on conversion of Restraint #2 to a PI and the hearing regarding the same.

The parties continue to work on briefing Defendants’ motion at ECF 57, which motion will be fully briefed by August 31, 2020.

Respectfully Submitted,

Wendy R. Stein
